

OUR SECRETARY'S 'ASSISTANT'

Christine's done a sterling job as secretary this year -
Everything's been organised with smiles and good cheer.
But, standing in the background - away from the limelight,
Her 'significant other' has helped her keep things right.

With dark good looks and homely charm - a winning combination,
This strong and stable presence has been her true salvation.
When paperwork came piling in Christine wasn't scared -
Happy in the knowledge that her burden could be shared.

Such unselfish support from this stalwart in her life,
Such unstinting service - without backchat, without strife.
Other social functions have even been forsaken
To take the time and make the space for private consultation.

But some of us have witnessed this relationship in action
And it's easy to understand the powerful attraction.
While saving her from reaching the end of her tether
Christine's co inhabitant looks quite well put together!

Now we have thanked our secretary sincerely from the heart,
But her 'collaborator' also played a crucial part.
So ladies let us raise a cheer as we are surely able
To recognise the important role of .....
